

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
HOUSTON DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

EDWARD CONSTANTINESCU

No. 4:22-CR-00612-S

DEFENDANT EDWARD CONSTANTINESCU'S MOTION FOR SHORT EXTENSION TO DISCLOSE EXPERT TESTIMONY

Edward Constantinescu respectfully requests that the Court permit him a short extension of time to obtain and disclose expert witnesses in this case. In short, Constantinescu respectfully requests additional time to provide disclosures in light of the government's 900+ trial exhibits, to which the government first provided access on Monday, August 14th—one day before the defense deadline to disclose expert witnesses. Constantinescu seeks this requested relief in light of (1) his currently pending motion to sell three of his properties so he can fund his complete defense, including witnesses who may testify as experts; and (2) the government's recent disclosure of exhibits and additional productions.

As detailed more extensively in his recently filed Motion to Permit the Sale of Property to Assert His Sixth Amendment Rights, (ECF No. 354), Constantinescu is respectfully seeking leave of the Court to sell three of his properties to, in part, fund and present a complete defense, one of his Sixth Amendment rights. See United States v. Stanford, 823 F.3d 814, 836 (5th Cir. 2016). Constantinescu anticipates that the sale of the properties will provide him with liquidity to hire an expert in this case, and respectfully requests additional time on that basis.

Second, Constantinescu requests additional time to procure expert testimony in light of the government's belatedly produced trial exhibits. On top of the tens of millions of pages the government has produced through the course of this case, Constantinescu first received access to over nine hundred of the government's trial exhibits on August 14, 2023—three days after the Court's deadline. The government's trial exhibits include numerous documents that the government did not previously produce to the defense. Moreover, yesterday, on August 16, 2023, the government sent a production letter explaining that it is producing even more records pertaining to several of its expert witnesses and the lead testifying case agent. These records apparently will include processed social media data created and/or examined by one of the government's witnesses.

Accordingly, Constantinescu respectfully requests an additional 21 days to retain and disclose expert testimony in this case. A proposed order is being submitted with this request.
